

RSVP MOVIES SQL ASSIGNMENT

SUMMARY

After thoroughly analyzing the IMDB dataset and considering the insights presented, we can draw the following conclusive observations:

- The 'Drama' genre dominates with the highest number of votes and impressive average ratings. RSVP movies excel in the 'Drama' genre, offering captivating experiences with an average duration of 106.77 minutes.
- Most films received ratings between 6 and 8, indicating moderate audience reception. However, aiming for a median rating of 8 or higher significantly increases the chances of tremendous success.
- Star Cinema and Twentieth Century Fox emerge as top contenders among production companies, having produced numerous successful multilingual films. Marvel Studios stands out as the leader, surpassing all others in delivering hit movies.
- The movie has the potential to be directed by James Mangold, Anthony Russo, or Soubin Shahir, each bringing their unique expertise and style to create a captivating cinematic experience.
- Vijay Sethupathi stands out as the top actor in Indian cinema, captivating audiences with his versatile talent. Taapsee Pannu emerges as the top actress, showcasing remarkable skills and compelling performances.
- Dream Warriors Pictures and National Theatre Live collaborated to create the highest-rated movie, resonating with audiences and garnering critical acclaim. Star Cinema and Twentieth Century Fox also prove strong contenders with their extensive portfolio of multilingual films, making them suitable for projects targeting Indian audiences.